RHEMA BIBLE COLLEGE

1025 West Kenosha Street

www.rhema.org

And depending upon the time of the year, you could be in for some real treats. One of the most popular sights for area residents and visitors from throughout the four-state region is the Rhema Bible Church holiday lights spectacular. To celebrate Independence Day, Rhema offers "Rockets Over Rhema". More than 20,000 people attended this event last year. This year's attractions include one of the largest fireworks displays in the Tulsa/Broken Arrow area, inflatable games, car show, pony rides, rock climbing wall, and much more.

Admission to the concerts and fireworks is free but some attractions and concessions do require a fee. Prices will be posted at each booth/attraction.

BLUE BELL CREAMERIES

81st & Highway 51

918.258.5100

www.bluebell.com

For a fascinating look at how ice cream is made and packaged, Blue Bell offers tours for families and groups.

TUESDAYS IN THE PARK

1500 South Main - Central Park

www.artsba.org

Every Tuesday in June, the Broken Arrow Arts & Humanities Council sponsors free concerts. Bring a chair or blanket and enjoy a perfect family outing.

BROKEN ARROW COMMUNITY PLAYHOUSE

1800 South Main Street

918.258.0077

Broken Arrow's only live entertainment theatre. The Playhouse has won several awards for costume and set design and was named "Theatre of the Year" by the Oklahoma Community Theatre Association.

MAIN STREET MERCHANTS

www.brokenarrowdowntown.com

The pulse of the city is often found on Main Street. Our Main Street merchants offer a broad range of products and services, including antiques and restaurants, all within several blocks of Main Street. From the Tea Off and the holiday lights of winter to Rooster Days in May each year, you will find more about these "events" on our Community Calendar section.
